

Summer Intensive & Recreational Activities (SIRA) Program

If your teenage or young child is spending too much time this summer in front of the TV, or only playing video games/texting, its time to break him/her away from that activity and come on over to the IECRC Academy where Beginning July 1, 2010, IECRC is holding its first Summer Intensive & Recreational Activities (SIRA) program during the months of July and August.

The SIRA program is an essential intensive Islamic study program coupled with thought-provoking and spiritually fulfilling youth and family enrichment activities for summer. The program incorporates Islamic classes with family activities, field trips, and recreational trips into nature around Sacramento and surrounding areas. The program is a community service provided by concerned volunteers and a non-profit with only minimum costs charged.

Summer of 2010 Curriculum includes:

- Quran Qirat Program (Tues, Wed, Thursday 6pm-8pm PST - 19 sessions) – Small Fee to cover teacher
Quran recitation, Tajweed, and Islamiyat class taught by Imam Naumani.
- Summer Hifz Program (3hrs each Tue-Thr Mornings - 19 sessions) – $175 for the full program
Summer Part-time Quran Hifz will aim at memorization of last Juz (30th) depending on capability of student.
- Quranic Science - The Human Body & its Creation (with field trip to the famous Bodies Revealed - Mon evenings 6 sessions) - Field-trip cost
First of a series of Quranic science lectures aiming at describing the Islamic Scientific Approach in the light of the Qur'an. The first series is about the Human Body and its Creation. A field trip to Bodies Revealed is part of this class. English.
- Seerat un-Nabi (s) (Wed Evenings - 6 sessions) – Free
